

PROGRAMME

HIV/AIDS. Interdisciplinary Perspectives

11. - 13. September 2014, University of Bayreuth (S120/GWI)

THURSDAY, 11.09.2014

From 12:30	Arrival and registration
13:30 - 14:00	Alexandra Groß, Ramona Pech, Ivan Vlassenko (Bayreuth/Germany, Linguistics) Opening words and introduction 'Interdisciplinary Perspectives on HIV/AIDS'
14:00 - 15:00	Ulrich Marcus (Berlin/Germany, Robert Koch Institute) The HIV epidemic – facts and trends (with a focus on the situation in Europe and Germany)
15:00 - 15:15	Coffee break
15:15 - 16:00	Isabel Schmidt, Elisabeth Schorling (Bayreuth/Germany, Healthcare Management) Socio-economic effects of HIV/AIDS
16:00 - 16:45	Christian Liclair (Berlin/Germany, Art Studies) Representing AIDS in New York – The embodiment of disease within photographic portraits of the 1980ies
16:45 - 17:00	Coffee break
17:00 - 19:00	Manfred Neuwirth (Vienna/Austria, Film Direction) VOM LEBEN LIEBEN STERBEN – Erfahrungen mit Aids 20 Jahre später Public film screening in H26/GWI
From 19:30	Conference Dinner in Oskar, Maximilianstraße 33, Bayreuth

FRIDAY, 12.09.2014

09:00 - 10:00	Christoph Stephan (Frankfurt on the Main/Germany, Medicine) Aktuelle Diagnostik und Therapie bei HIV und AIDS
10:00 - 10:45	Caoimhe Cawley (London/Great Britain, Medicine) Factors associated with accessing an HIV counselling and testing clinic among men and women in rural Tanzania
10:45 - 11:00	Coffee break
11:00 - 11:45	Klaus Geiselhart, Fabian Schlatter (Erlangen/Germany, Geographical Development Studies) HIV/AIDS and antiretroviral medication in Botswana – epistemes and lived-in worlds
11:45 - 12:30	Yasmin Georgi (Berlin/Germany, German AIDS Federation) "Let's talk about sex" – a further education for physicians to improve patient-doctor communication linked to HIV/STI
12:30 - 14:00	Lunch
14:00 - 14:45	Elke Hoffmann, Martin Heyn (Munich/Germany, Bavarian Centre for Prevention and Health Promotion) HIV prevention at the Bavarian Centre for Prevention and Health Promotion

14:45 - 15:45	Tony Contrera Charpentier (Santo Domingo/Dominican Republic, NGO MOSCTHA) Community outreach experience with different target populations in the Dominican Republic
15:45 - 16:00	Coffee break
16:00 - 16:45	Martina Drescher (Bayreuth/Germany, Linguistics, BIGSAS Senior Fellow) Rien à signaler. Eine linguistische Perspektive auf HIV/AIDS-Plakate aus dem frankophonen Afrika
16:45 - 17:30	Vladimir Cajkovic (Dresden/Germany, Media Studies) AIDS as a Global Media Event: An intercultural comparison of posters and their imagery
17:30 - 17:45	Coffee break
17:45 - 18:30	Beate Schappach (Bern/Switzerland, Literature, Theatre and Film Studies) Aids in Literatur, Theater und Film. Zur kulturellen Dramaturgie eines Störfalls
From 19:30	Conference Dinner in Sinnopoli, Badstraße 13, Bayreuth

SATURDAY, 13.09.2014

09:00 - 09:45	Daniel Knuchel (Zurich/Switzerland, Linguistics) Kommunikation und (Nicht-)Wissen über HIV/AIDS seit 1996 – Ein korpuspragmatisches Dissertationsvorhaben
09:45 - 10:30	Nina Jann (Berlin/Germany, Linguistics) Das neue Aids? Die Diskursivierung von HIV und Aids im SPIEGEL von 1996-2013
10:30 - 10:45	Coffee break
10:45 - 11:30	Didérot Djiala Mellie (Bayreuth/Germany, Linguistics, BIGSAS Junior Fellow) The media social categorization in HIV/AIDS preventive discourses
11:30 - 12:15	Baba Mai Bello (Maiduguri/Nigeria, Linguistics, BIGSAS Alumnus) Critical Discourse Analysis of HIV/AIDS – Sensitisation messages in Nigeria
12:15 - 12:30	Coffee break
12:30 - 13:15	Kofi Evam Glover (Tamale/Ghana, Ethnology, BIGSAS Alumnus) Social forces and the decision to become the other wife in the era of HIV/AIDS in Ghana
13:15 - 14:00	Anu Pande (Hyderabad/India, Literature Studies) Transgressing the limits: German and French Autobiographical and Auto-fictional AIDS Literature as an Act of Resistance
14:00 - 14:30	Alexandra Groß, Ramona Pech, Ivan Vlassenko (Bayreuth/Germany, Linguistics) Discussion and closing remarks
From 14:30	Informal get-together with beverages and snacks